

VINTAGE STYLE

All the charm of days gone by, including a sweet covered front veranda, accented with today's conveniences, describes this immaculate heritage home on 1.42 sunny acres. The house's history as the original Mouat homestead is still evident in the character styling retaining elegance and sophistication, while extensive upgrades give it a move in ready appeal. Delightful, bright gourmet kitchen with quality appliances and a butler's pantry for entertaining pleasure. Main floor bedroom or studio with attached bathroom and superb natural light provides a flexible space to suit your needs. Garden enthusiasts will appreciate the surrounding mature perennial plantings, seating areas and heirloom fruit and nut trees (including award winning walnut tree). Catch a harbour glimpse and mountain views, located just a short distance to town and sailing club.
